UM STUDENTS WIN STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIPS

MISSOULA --

Two University of Montana-Missoula students recently garnered $150 stipends to aid their foreign travels and studies.

London Matusiak and Annie Baldwin received Rose Southworth Megee Scholarships, awarded through UM's Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures. Matusiak, of Billings, is a sophomore majoring in business administration and minoring in French. Annie Baldwin, a senior from San Francisco, is a liberal studies major with a French minor. Matusiak and Baldwin will be traveling to France next fall with UM's study abroad program. The scholarships will be applied to the students' tuition costs.

The Rose Southworth Megee Scholarship is awarded annually to students in the foreign languages and literatures department who participate in the study abroad program. Megee graduated from UM in 1932 with a bachelor's degree in classics. She now resides in Ennis, Mont.
